

Contact: January Riddle
619-794-0161
JanuaryR@cox.net

Moms in America*—a World Premiere for SD Pride Month

Three generations. Three Jewish men. One family, perhaps. One dead woman to be buried as tradition dictates, or cremated in accordance with her will. So.

One survived the Cossacks. One survived Woodstock. One survived coming out and HIV – so far. So.

Now they are here, the three men, in Miami. Their collective purpose is to deal with the remains of a woman who was grandmother, mother, wife, free spirit, noodge, thought-less, estranged and who is, now, in her passing, a symbol, an excuse, a last chance – all at once.

So. Maybe the three men of this oddly familiar family can find ways to love each other for who they are. If only they could love each other at all.

Ah. Maybe it is easier to blame the moms.

Moms in America, written, produced and directed by J Marcus Newman, is about emptiness and trying to fill the void but not knowing how. It's about messing up through wanting and not knowing why. It's maybe about more than this masculine branch of one small family tree.

So. Go see it and decide for yourself.

Moms in America*, written, produced and directed by J Marcus Newman, is an official San Diego GLBT Pride Event, playing Thursdays through Sundays July 6-30 at 2790 Lytton Street in Loma Portal. Curtain—8:00 pm Thu-Sat, 2:00 pm Sun. Tickets are $25. SD Pride and other discounts available. Reservations at 619-683-2256 or pay at the door.

A World Premiere of Moms in America

What: An original play by J Marcus Newman that peeks at the raisons d'être of three generations of American Jewish men. One survived the Cossacks. One survived the 60s. One survived HIV/AIDS. So far...so what?

Who: Written, Produced and Directed by J Marcus Newman

Featuring: Ed Eigner, Paul Halem, Jay Michael Fraley

When: July 6-9, 13-16, 20-23, 27-30
Curtain at 8:00 pm Thu-Sat; 2:00 pm Sun.

Where: 2790 Lytton Street in Loma Portal
Across from Liberty Station -- the old Navy Training Center and golf course; enter on St. Charles Street, 2nd floor - no elevator. Street parking only.

Tickets: At the door or call 619-683-2256.
General admission $25. Discounts available.

Note: This play contains adult content, smoking, nudity

Visit us at: www.guisegallery.com

Donations accepted through our fiscal associate, Malashock Dance, please specify Moms in America at: malashock@malashockdance.org or call (619) 260-1622.

Media Contact:
January Riddle
619-794-0161
JanuaryR@cox.net